Detectives are appealing for witnesses following the attack in Backcrofts on Saturday, March 3. It happened at around 2am after the victims had left the nearby Bank bar and lounge.

Investigating officer DC Carl Roberts said: "It is believed the offenders, two black men in baseball style caps, had been part of a large group drinking in the Bank bar that evening and that they possibly left in a Range Rover.

We want to speak to anyone who saw anything or who can identify those responsible or any of the others in the group they were with that evening." Witnesses are asked to call DC Roberts on 101 uniting

ROAD FEAR OVER EW STORE PLAN

COUNCILLORS have expressed their dismay that a revised planning application for a new supermarket in Burntwood has been rejected.

Lichfield District Council knocked back Aldi's plans to amend the highways access for its proposed new store at the former Bridge Cross Working Men's Club, at Sankey's Corner.

Working Men's Club, at Plans for the 800sq ft supermarket, with a 67-space car park, were origi-nally approved in August despite there being more than 200 objections from residents. Aldi resubmitted an appli-cation which proposed Aldi resubmitted an application which proposed a new signal-operated crossing on the Milestone Way arm of the Cannock Road and Bridge Cross Road roundabout junction.

The new proposal also pledged that vehicles would be able to gain access from both directions on Milestone Way, instead of just from the left, which would have included constructinging a dedicated right turn lane. But despite receiving 22 letters of support for the revised scheme and just two objections, the council

"It is also hoped that Aldi will still go ahead with the controlled pedestrian crossing, although my understanding is that they do not have to go ahead with that part of the scheme now that the fresh application has been rejected."

Fellow Burntwood councilor Stephen Taylor was surprised the council didn't take into account the support for the application.

"I would like to express my dismay and sadness at this decision," he said.
"I'm very disappointed, particularly when you consider there were 22 representations of support and only two objects.
"We hope that Aldi carry on and build the store, because it's definitely needed, and that they put in the controlled crossing.

Anyone can manufacture a group of four singers, but what are the chances of finding four singing comedians? The Monkees were never a serious challenge to The Beatles but they became the pop group we knew best, perfectly reflecting the fun and froth of that extraordinary decade.

We all have our Monkees moment. Strangely, mine came almost 20 years after their heyday. We were on our way to Lynmouth and we'd had lunch in the beer garden of a hotel in the village of Dunster. It was a blazing hot day and as we drove under the pub archway to rejoin the road, the car windows and sunroof were open. Without looking down, I slipped an old cassette into the stereo.

Suddenly the opening bars of The Monkees theme tune were filling the car and echoing off the old walls: "Here we come (boom, boom), walkin' down the

The various Traders' Associations from across the district are working relentlessly to promote the area and encourage people from other places to visit our town centres, so increasing parking fees is hard to comprehend.

I would like to take this opportunity to request that the cabinet reconsider its position on this issue as any hike in the cost to park will similar the cost. the cost to park will significantly impact on the already hard-pressed salaries of those who work within our town centres, job creation will be adversely affected, plus current and potential visitors will simply go else-where to do their shopping . Think for yourselves

REFERENCE all this stuff about prayers before meetings.

Most people will do what they have always done in such circumstances and just go along with it and pretend. But the fact is there are those who find this difficult and perhaps meaningless. There are people who just insist on thinking for themselves, rather than what they were told to believe. The humanists among us do no harm, just endeavour to have a good day and maybe do a little good along the way.

Hayes late the other night was astounded to find that the local council (whichever one will own up to it) has implemented speed humps on high street.

However, there are still many potholes and uneven surfaces from the last two winters. Couldn't these have been filled in first?

Further, consider these being covered in snow to the usual level of not being really visible, it wouldn't take much of an impact to take someone's engine oil sump out on one. Consider too the automatic swerving by motorists to avoid them.

Consider the money saved by putting a 20mph sign either end of the high street or tying the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see the sum of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see here the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see here the sets of the sets of the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see here the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to see here the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to set the sets of the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire to set the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire the sets of traffic lights into a speed monitorier desire the sets of the sets of the sets of the sets of the set of the sets of the sets of the set of the sets of the sets of the sets of the set of the sets of the set of the sets of the Hard task master who gets stuck in RE: local businessman Ken Lees donating land to value of £250,000 to South Staffordshire Council to ease the burden of finding burial spaces. I have known Ken for many years as Jeff Heggs and I have done all his ground work.

You could say Ken was a hard task master, but he was always willing to get stuck in. Road surfacing, concreting or pipe laying, Ken was always willing to give a hand.

With Ken you had no worries about money – work done, you got paid. I would also like to thank Ken for the generous donation he made to Cheslyn Hay village hall tai chi class. We can now keep the fee as it has been for the next 12 months.

I wish Ken and his family health and happiness.

Strimmer found in raid handed back to church

POLICE recovered a 'significant amount' of cannabis vegetation from two properties in Bridgtown.

Officers executed two warrants last Wednesday morning (March 7) under the misuse of drugs act. Thousands of pounds worth of power tools, believed to be stolen, were also recovered from the addresses in New Street and Mosswood Street and one item, a strimmer, has been returned to St James Norton Cannes church.

No arrests were made, but a 28-year-old man from Cannock came forward and was interviewed by police. The £500 strimmer had been stolen from the church on March 2 and was handed back after being identified using SmartWater, an invisible DNA-style security marking system.

Military fashion show aids Help for Heroes

A MILITARY-themed fashion show in Penkridge will raise money for Help for Heroes. Other local charities will also benefit from the show, at 7pm at Wolgarston High School, in Cannock Road, on Wednesday, March 28. It has being organised by Penkridge Impact Group, set up to bring older and younger people in the village together. There will be military-themed equipment on show as well as displays of memorabilia. A calendar featuring the younger and older people modelling the outfits can be bought, for a donation to Help for Heroes.

Tickets are £5, or £3 for concessions, from the school or from PCSO Andy Poxon on 07815 966910.

Kayleigh's model way to beat bullies warning over work of the country's top models.

A RUGELEY teenager has beaten the bullies - and is being lined up as one of the country's top models.

As a child Kayleigh McCabe was bullied for having red hair - but tomorrow (Friday) she will face the judges with her flaming locks for the finals of Top Model UK.

All the previous winners have gone on to take part in major fashion shows and have been photographed by top European designers.

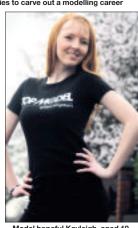

The 19-year-old is currently studying hair-dressing at South Staffordshire College. When she was at Hayes Meadow Primary in Rugeley, she was relentlessly teased about her red hair. "I don't look back on that time with hanny she was relentlessly teased about her red hair.

"I don't look back on that time with happy memories as I was really picked on at school," she said. "I'm a size eight but I have a 32DD chest and so was quite different to the other girls.

"Even today it still makes me sad to think about it and I don't like looking at photos of myself from school. Now I feel like I have shown the bullies that I'm no longer the victim."

The Top Model UK finals will take place at the Hilton Metropole in London. Voting has now closed, but all profits made from the public vote go to Great Ormond Street charity Children with Cancer UK.

At the Windmill Lane Children's Centre, in Windmill Lane, Castlecroft, he caused £7,500 worth of damage with his shoddy workmanship.

Bankrupt

The 56-year-old roofer, from Windmill Lane, Castle-croft, admitted nine counts of unfair trading, two of taking part in the promotion, formation or management of Advanced Pacifics ment of Advanced Rooflines Ltd and All Surface Protec tion Ltd while an undis tion Ltd while an undischarged bankrupt, and two of misleading marketing between March 2009 and May 2010.

All the victims had to spend money having his work fixed.

An earlier hearing was told Bettles fell off the roof of a building last July, receiving head injuries that caused "serious memory loss," Mr Harbinder Gahir claimed in defence. But the court heard defence. But the court heard Bettles had not provided any medical evidence District Judge Michael Wheeler adjourned sentenc-ing until March 26 and war-ned jail may be an option.

Multi-Award winning travel agents and cruise specialists Penny & Ian Crampton picked up their latest travel award recently when they were named as 'Agent of The Year' for Cunard, at the 2011 UK Cruise Awards.

Penny said, "It was a thrill when Yes2Travel were named as Agent of the Year, it was nice to know that we are appreciated for the the way we use our knowledge and personal service for the benefit of every customer. When it comes to service we are old fashioned and proud of it. We still like to help find the right holiday for you, we also take care of providing advanced passenger information to cruise and airlines, and we still provide you with all your travel documents in a ticket wallet."

Following on from their highly successful escorted cruise groups of previous years, Penny & Ian will be hosting a group of both experienced and first time cruisers onboard Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines in June. Ian said, "This Norwegian itinerary has already proved popular and we now only have a very small number of our allocated cabins and seats on our coach left. The closing date for joining our group is Wednesday 21st March, so if you fancy cruising with us, don't delay, call us now."

Since opening in November 1999, Penny & lan have built an enviable reputation for personal service with a professional but friendly approach. They offer a full range of holiday options from UK coach tours and Mediterranean package holidays, through to bespoke long haul itineraries, escorted tours, and luxury worldwide cruises. Ian said, " Even though we have a reputation for being cruise specialists, we also offer the full range of holiday options you would expect from a High Street travel agency. Our personal approach and excellent service is why our customers are happy to recommend us to their family and friends."

Penny added, "We pride ourselves on being travel professionals and using our knowledge and expertise to provide a quality of personal service our clients find invaluable. In an age dominated by internet pages and instant messaging, we still talk to our customers; and more importantly, our customers know they can talk to us."

EATING OUT

New lease of life at Indian venue has diners sold

thechronicle

A RESTAURANT that closed down suddenly more than two years ago has been given a new lease of life - and has already proved a winner.

Shohidul Islam, owner of the award-winning Flames in Penkridge and Zeera in Bloxwich, bought the old Fans Cantonese restaurant, in Walsall Road, which closed in January 2010. It opened last month as Spice Bazaar and has already picked up its first accolade. At the Midland Curry Club Good Food Awards, the titles of best curry chef in Cannock and best Indian cuisine waiter went the way of Spice Bazaar. Catering for 126 diners in all, Spice Bazaar is welcoming both inside and out. It is licensed to serve alcohol, but has also quickly earned a reputation with its food.

Mr Islam said feedback had proved positive and many customers had made return visits. A look at the comments book would indicate this. "Fantastic food, staff and a beautiful setting," said one, while another added: "Food delicious, portions just right, service excellent."

With this in mind, my partner and I paid a visit. It was still relatively early on a midweek cious, portions just right, service exceil.

With this in mind, my partner and I still relatively early on a midweek night, but the place was busy. Staff take time out to talk to their customers and are happy to cater for any requests they may have.

Tempted

As I was undecided on choice of main, I had a half-serving of each with my options being chicken tikka chasni and a spicy kabuli roll. This after being tempted into trying the popular Spice Bazaar special roll starter.

Sharon's main was the butter chicken, which proved too much after a starter and poppadums. But it still tasted good the next day.

For myself there was still room for a chocolate roll dessert. The overall experience was spot on – just like those comments from fellow diners.

HOW GOD MADE

Despite the overly imagistic title of this new, three-part documentary, it's actually a rather serious series that aims to explore what it means to be English, and what has shaped English identity. And while that may leave our Scottish, Irish and Welsh cousins feeling a tad left out, it may offer them a unique opportunity to find out what makes the English tick – the home nations are. What's also interesting is that the programme is by no means a celebratory pat on the back for the English everywhere - in fact, in some and from that, a way of measuring how similar or different

THE ENGLISH

A local agency has strengthened its team to extend and enhance its sales and lettings services across the town and beyond.

Lorna Sumnall Properties, established six years ago, has a new residential sales manager, John Bruce, to help the business develop its sales portfolio. John, who hails from derby, knows the areas well and has considerable experience in property investment and development across the region.

The other new recruit is James Bowater, who has worked for the Westbury Homes and has wide experience in lettings and property maintenance.

As office manager, he will head up the Lorna Sumnall team of contractors who can ensure that properties are maintained or developed to the highest standards.

"We are delighted to welcome two such experienced professionals to the team," said Lorna.

"They will provide an expert service in their respective fields and help us to enhance what we believe is already an unrivalled support package for vendors, landlords and tenants."

Part of that package is a free "house doctor" service - with the company happy to check out properties for potential landlords or vendors and then provide expert advice on what, if anything, needs to be done to improve the property for sale or rental.

"We are keen to stress to potential vendors that they should act now and get their homes on the market as early in the new Year as possible," Lorna added. "We believe it will enhance their chances of success - and we are currently offering a "sale in 90 days" package because we are confident of getting results for our clients."

When choosing the right agent to sell your biggest asset, these are the 8 things you should be looking for:

- The agent has an office presence on the high street where prospective clients can comfortably speak to an advisor about the property.
- The agent advertising in the local press and rightmove (the largest property website in the UK).
- The agent has adequate staffing to be able to answer telephone enquiries throughout the working week. No-one likes an automated answer phone.
- The agent can offer accompanied viewings and be able to show clients round at short notice.
- The agent has been servicing the local market and has acquired specialised local knowledge selling in
- The agent has an excellent data base of prospective
- The agent has a mortgage specialist to be able to qualify buyers and ensure they are eligible for a
- The agent is pro-active and offers sound advice guiding you in the right direction through a difficult market.

At Chase you can be sure we offer all of the above and more, so if you're thinking of moving call Jo or Adele NOW on 01889 582233

back to the best with Hybrid 5

probably never will be a fan of diesel. It's hardly the most delightful of substances to handle, and service stations without disposhandle, and service stations without disposable gloves on hand ought to be closed down. The trouble is, diesel engines have seen huge advances over the last decade and with manufacturers pouring millions into developing cleaner, faster and more refined powerplants, they make an awful lot of sense.

BMW has been at the forefront of this trend too; only a few weeks ago it amnounced a fiendishly clever triple-turbo highperformance diesel.

But it has an arguably unequalled reputation for superbetrol engines, and now it's trying to combine this knownow with some electric boost.

The Active Hybrid 5 is the firm's first hybrid offering to reach the UK, and just looking at the vital statistics it has an awful lot to offer.

reach the UK, and just looking at the vital statistics it has an awful lot to offer.

Behind the familiar 5-Series nose there is the 3.0-litre twin-turbocharged 302bhp petrol unit already used elsewhere in the BMW range and in particular the 535i - the car that BMW says the Hybrid 5 is an alternative to.

In the Hybrid 5, however, there is 52bhp electric motor added to the mix and with both motors pulling at the same time there is 335bhp and 332lb.ft of torque, all channelled to the rear wheels only through an eight-speed automatic gearbox.

No question, then, that it is still a sporting saloon; 0-62mph takes only 5.9 seconds and it is fast enough that the 155mph electronic limiter is required.

Navigation

Yet the eco numbers are remarkably good too. The combined fuel consumption of 44. Impg is just a whisker behind a manual 535 diesel, as is the 149g/km CO2 emissions figure. From starting the Hybrid 5 can manage 2.4 miles before it has to switch onto petrol power, but with the charge flowing in and out you find yourself switching into pure electric mode far more often than the mileage would suggest. It also runs up to 37mph in electric mode, but better still is the way in which the engine shuts off completely on the overrun.

overrun.

As with many recent BMWs, the Hybrid 5 has driver-selectable modes including Sport, Comfort and most crucially EcoPro. In this mode everything is geared towards efficiency, including the air conditioning, throttle response and gearshift selection.

BMW's philosophy of good weight distribution has been maintained despite the addition of weighty batteries in the noot area. The real gem though is that the Hybrid 5 makes a financial case for itself too. At a shade over £46,000 it gets pretty close to its in-house rivals, but what the Hybrid 5 does that nothing else can is match petrol power with performance, economy and low emissions all together.

Through the addition of a Through the addition of a turbocharger, engineers at the Hyundai Motor Europe Technical Centre in Rüs-selsheim, Germany, have boosted power output and increased low-end torque to best suit European driving tastes and enhance driver enjoyment.

The Veloster Turbo is the first Hyundai to feature the company's 1,6-litre GDI engine with a high-compresengine with a high-compression, twin-scroll turbocharger. In European specification, this new T-GDI unit generates 186 ps and 270 Nm of torque. In non-turbocharged form, the Veloster offers 140 ps and 167 Nm.

Tony Whitehorn, president and CEO of Hyundai Motor UK, said: "UK drivers tend to prefer more torque from a lower engine speed, so our European engineers have specified a set-up that still provides a substantial increase in power - up from still provides a substantial increase in power - up from 140 ps to 186 ps - while also delivering the desired lowend torque. Record number of visitors turn up at premier motor show

A RECORD number of 28,500 visitors attended one of the country's premier motor-shorting, superta and industrycte rains, over a period of three days.

A rally stage set in the extensive grounds gave spectators the chance to see, in full-blown dramatic action, the famous rally cars of yesteryear including the Metro 6R4, Subaru Impreza 555, Audi Quattro A2, Lotus Sunbeam Talbot, Porsche 911 ST, Ford Escort RS1600 and Works Mini Cooper S.

VIP visitors included pop star and renowned motoring enthusiast Jay Kay, of Jamiroquai, who was treated to the "ride of his life" through the special stage by rallying hero Bjorn Waldegard –in Jay's own Porsche 914. Jay later went on to buy a California Highway Patrol motorycle from the auction, which he is to use in his next music video.

Legendary

Other records tumbled at Race Retro through Silverstone Auctions, who reported the sale of a 1958 Trojeiro Jaguar for £286,000, 1960 Aston Martin DB4 for £170,000 and a crash helmet worn by the late legendary Formula One driver Ayrton Senna, which sold for £71,500.

The massive show halls included a gigantic auto jumble at which classic car drivers could spend hours searching for that elusive part for their cherished motors, or find rare tools and equipment to complete that long-term restoration project project.

Local companies exhibiting at the show included Classic Motor Cars of Bridgnorth who had two of their fully restored Jaguars on display and Midland Automobile Club, organisers of Shelsley Walsh Hill Climb, who had a stand with several specialist cars on show.

TIPS OF THE WEEK

When looking for a builder don't be shy about asking to see jobs they have already done and talking to the previous customers about their experience, if you have the chance. Also be sure to check for membership of a trade association, such as the Federation of Master Builders.

Ask for details of how the builder should be paid and agree a payment plan in advance. This should be in instalments, as parts of the project are completed.

Always make sure the builders' quote covers everything you would like done, including supply of materials, removal of rubbish and 'making good' after the work is finished

For extra peace of mind and reassurance, get the work covered by an insurance-backed warranty, such as those offered by Build Assure or other providers. Build Assure offer a wide range of insurance products to suit your individual requirements, www. . fmbuildassure.co.uk.

The Federation of Master Builders (FMB), the largest trade association in the UK construction industry, http://www.fmb.org.uk/fab/.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED) ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991 Margaret Drive/Elizabeth Road/Westminster Road, Cannock

Diversion of Vehicular Traffic NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Staffordshire County Council, on 13 March 2012, made an Order the effect of which is to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in the following lengths of road in the District of Cannock: Margaret Drive – between its Junctions with Limepit Lane and Elizabeth Road;

Elizabeth Road – between its junctions with Margaret Drive to a point approximately 30 metres south of Philip Grove;

approximately 30 metres south of Philip Cirove;

Westminster Road – between its junctions with Margaret Drive to a point approximately 32 metres east of Margaret Drive; unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works. As new residential properties become occupied access to frontages and for emergency service vehicles will be permitted.
The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via Limepit Lane, Pye Green Road, Clarion Way and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON MONDAY 19 MARCH 2012, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY MONDAY 17 SEPTEMBER 2012.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the junction and highway alteration works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Premier.
The former Stafford and

The former Stafford and Rushall man's form was the high point of an afternoon when the Scholars showed signs of improvement.

Home skipper Courtney Pitt found their first chance on 12 minutes but his freekick was put out for a corner as Charlie Raglan closed in.

Danny Smith outpaced the Tigers defence two minutes later but his shot flew just outside the post.

minutes later but his shot flew just outside the post. The visitors took the lead on 31 minutes through Ashley Burbeary and doubled it on the stroke of half-time through Luke Shields. In the second half, Scholars' Massiah McDonald had achance cleared for a corner. Dean Perrow twice broke clear but was ruled offside. Maguire and Jordan Archer set up Gary Birch but his cross was out of Perrow's reach. Four minutes from time Pitt sent a ball over the top and Maguire smash it in top and Maguire smash it in for his maiden Scholars goal a one day after joining.
